

SMALL BUSINESS

Spotlight

[The Plant Station]

The Plant Station in Fredonia, Kansas is a floral and gift shop located in the a former railroad depot. Their speciality "anytime" gift is a full size candy bouquet. Owner Sandy Smith specializes in customer service and personal attention.

Years in Business: Opened in 1999, serving the Fredonia area for over 20 years.

Product Line: Fresh flowers, plants, gift items, candles, home decor

Local Commitment: Tries to purchase Kansas and American made products as much as possible.

“I’m always happy to help our local 4-H program and I try to provide what I can at no cost for banquets, fair and the style revue.”
| Sandy Smith

K-STATE
Research and Extension

Wildcat District

The Smiths are proud to be a Wilson County 4-H Legacy Family, a program created several years ago to honor families that have been instrumental in the 4-H program through several generations.